

Phishing Email Example | what to look for

National Credit Union Administration

Vague greeting.

Dear CU account holder.

this notice informs you that your Credit Union bank has joined our Federal Credit Union(FCU) network. For both, our and your security, we are asking you to activate an online account on our database. After activation you can login on our system with your SSN and your Credit/Debit PIN number.

You must visit the FCU activation page and fill in the form to activate your online account.

http://www.ncua.gov/activate_account.html

In accordance with NCUA User Agreement, you can use your online account in 24 hours after activation. We thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. Please understand that this is a security measure intended to help protect you nd your account.

We apologize for any inconvenience.

Sincerely, NCUA Account Review Department

We will never ask you to verify personal account information.

This is already contained in our records.

Look for simple spelling & grammatical errors.

Please do not reply to this e-mail. Mail sent to this address cannot be answered.

No disclaimer information or email response.