State Department Federal Credit Union hosts
70th Annual Meeting & Building Dedication

Alexandria, VA, April 13, 2005: State Department Federal Credit Union held its 70th Annual Meeting in Alexandria, Virginia in conjunction with a building dedication ceremony.

The building, a 62,000+ square foot office complex located at 1640 King Street, is adjacent to the Credit Union's headquarters branch and executive offices. Chairman, Marlene Schwartz remarked, "A building is just brick and mortar, but it houses the people who fulfill the basic purposes and functions for which this Credit Union was founded 70 years ago. We believe this operations facility reflects our dedication to serve our members with the security and efficiency they deserve. "

Special guests included NCUA Chairman, Jo Ann Johnson and Alexandria Mayor William Euille. Ms. Johnson spoke about service and dedication to the community. She praised State Department FCU for impressive products and service. Alexandria Mayor William Euille spoke about upcoming plans for the Alexandria area including updated pedestrian walkways, upscale restaurants, and a condominium complex currently underway.
