Confused About The Mortgage Process?

It seems at every turn some lender is telling you about their home mortgage product. So, how can you get information from people you can trust? The answer is with your Credit Union and it's as close as your computer.

When it comes to home mortgages we know you have lots of questions. That's why we've added more mortgage options especially for our members, with loan specialists available to help you at your convenience. In fact, with our online mortgage program, you can ask questions, get answers, compare loan options and even apply for your mortgage at any time - day or night - without leaving your computer.

State Department Federal Credit Union offers live, online member service with our mortgage experts. You can cut through the confusion quickly, getting clear answers about rates for first-mortgages, refinancing and home equity loans from a team you can trust. We can help you decide what kind of mortgage is right for you. Then, you can determine what your true best rate is, using our Rate Quote Wizard and a Quick Rate Sheet to spell out details like closing costs, monthly payments, annual percentage rates and more.

It's fast, it's easy and it's as close as your computer. Log onto www.sdfcumortgage.org to see just how easy it is to use this new mortgage lending service. If you're thinking of making a move, visit us on the Internet, stop by our branch, or call us to learn more about the many ways we can help.
